A career in law is no longer confined to musty black robes and dusty wigs, with court rooms no longer the only workplace. Today, the legal profession is one of the most fruitful career options available to young aspirants.

A mere glance at the career options will blow you away and you will be amazed to know diverse career paths. Law graduates can choose to be practicing attorneys, litigators, corporate lawyers, work in taxation and finances, be judges, paralegals or consultants, work in government sector and media industry, or become activists. The paths ahead of you are manifold and come with great advantages.

■ Financial success and social prestige

■ Global opportunities across geographical boundaries

Gautam Puri, vice chairman and MD of Career Launcher Educate Ltd says, "With a growing economy, the demand for legal professionals is increasing, thereby making it a lucrative career option. We, at CL LST, help law aspirants get into top law colleges across the country." Career Launcher was also associated with recently concluded HT Friday Jam, season 4.

Start early with a BA LLB
